West End Mite Society. A meeting of the West End Mite Soci ety was held at the Church last night, when the tableaux and charades were repeated to a larger audience than has atended any of the present series of entertainments. The tableaux were well acted, and the singing was good. Green Morrow was on hand, in his usual happy humor, and kept the audience in a roar of laughter. The refreshment tables were liberally patronized, and the receipts were much larger than had been expected. A Capital Suggestion.

It is suggested by a wide-awake citizen of his county that, as the body which nominated the Democratic and Conservative icket was emphatically a people's convenion, a rousing ratification barbecue be held at some point in the county to be named in the near future. Should the plan be adopted and properly carried out, Davidson county would witness one of the grandest gatherings, both as to numbers and enthu-siasm, ever held within her borders. Should the report be favorable, Brownsville will, in all probability, get the Asylum.

Political Gossip. The ticket nominated for the county offices Saturday was the subject of universal and animated discussion on the streets and in the business houses of the city yesterday. A great deal of speculation with regard to the State now being made up by the opposition, is indulged in. It was currently reported yesterday, that caucuses were being held, and that Charley Donaldson had County Court Clerk, and would make the race for the office of Sheriff; that Wm. Davis would be a candidate for the office of Criminal Court Clerk instead of that of County Court Clerk, thus leaving the latter office clear for McCann and Pentecost. However, upon being questioned by Union AND AMERICAN reporters with regard to this rumor, both Donaldson and Pentecest Palmer's "pard" has not been po taut notice to the Knights Templar, who found yet, though earnest efforts have been made to discover his whereabouts. After being locked up Saturday afternoon, Palmer sent a communication to the postoffice addressed "No. 20. He settled at Franklin some twenty years ago, and engaged in the profession of teaching, which he has continued ever since. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Franklin, his wife being a member of the choir. He was highly respected and was one of the best educated men in the State.

For the past three weeks he had been suffering from a depression of spirits in consequence of his having become possessed of the idea that he was about to lose all his property. He had procured a pistol, but the weapon was taken from him and hidden in a drawer. Friday evening his little aughter had the drawer open, disclosing the weapon to view, and it was soon after secured by Mr. McNutt, who secreted it. During the night his wife was induced to lie down, leaving her husband in the care of withdrawn as a candidate for the effice of the little girl, but was soon aroused by the report of a pistol. THE NEW ORGAN.

Preparations for the Grand Concert at the Cumberland Presbyterian

The rehearsal held Sunday afternoon by those who are to take part in the grand concert to be given at the new Cumberland Presbyterian Church to-morrow night, was well attended. The principal part of the programme is Rossini's celebrated "Stabat Mater," and is of a brilliant, cheerful movement. Other selections in the programme are of the highest standard. Among the beauties of the concert will be a quartette by Mesdames Marshall and Moulton, Messrs. Jackson and Stockell; Trio by Mrs. Wessell, Messrs. Philip Schneider and Stewart, a baritone solo by Mr. Dorman, quartette by Misses Wambaugh and Cotton, Messrs. Ashford and Moulton, quartette by Mrs. Craig, Miss Wambaugh, Messrs, Moulton and Stewart, and a duo by sopranos, Quis est Homo-a gem of the concert-by Mrs. Cralg and Miss Brown.

The solo part of the Stabat Mater will be rendered by several of the above named amateurs. Miss Currey will sing Ave Verum, and the concert closes with the grand obligate solo and cherus Inflammatus. Prof. Ernest Zoeller will preside at the organ. Mr. John Campbell is the di-rector, and in connection with the church music committee, Mr. Stockell and Miss Brown deserve thanks for this grand musical treat. There was a lively sale of reserved seats at McClure's yesterday, and the prospects are flattering for a full house. The concert is well worth the admission of one dollar, and seats can be secured without extracharge. The splendid andience room is about finished together with the ventilating aparatus, which will make it the most pleasant auditorium in the city.

John Killehrow is evidently an eccentric genius. According to the sworn statement of Henry Bergen, which was in the following words and figures, to wit: "I am a stranger from Norf Caroliner. I'se bin a workin' on the railroad at Gallatin. I arrived at Nashville last Chewsday, and was a gwine to the depot to go to Galiatin when this man met me and without saying nothin' to me, he yanked out his knife and slashed me right here;" and Bergen displayed a slit which had been cut in the posem of his shirt.

"Well you'd better light out and back to Gallatin as soon as possible, said the court, "for this is a dangerous "It ain't if a feller behaves himself?"

inquired the victim of Killebrew's eccentre-"Yes even if a man behaves himself, when such wolves as this run around oose," responded the court, gazing severely ipon Killebrew, who would, doubtless, have blushed with shame at this exposure had it not been for the fact that he is one of those who are "borne to blush unsean." "I expect you would have robbed this man if he'd had any money," said the "No, sir; that's somethin' I don't foller," esponded Killebrew. "Well, I know something you will foller for several weeks, and that is breaking W. Langford, Agent.

DOWN TO DEATH.

Breaks his Skull. At 5:20 yesterday afternoon, J. P. Hill, a carpenter employed on the new Blind Asylum building, met his death under the most distressing circumstances. He was standing on the top of the structure, holding the guide rope of a derrick, to contro the pieces of timber which were being drawn from the ground to the upper stories of the building. Suddenly the rigging gave way, and he was jerked violently from his footing and ferl a distance of 44 feet, striking on one of the lower joists and fractur ing his sxull. He lived about twenty minutes after the accident but was unable to speak, and remained in an insensible condition until he was relieved from his suffering by death. Coroner Brantly held an inquest over the Light Dress Suits. body, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts above stated. The deceased has been a resident of the city for eighteen years, and at the time of his death was living at 63 Ewing avenue. He has been a member of Elm Street Church for a number of years, and was White Linen Suits. teacher in the Sunday-school. He was 28 years of age and leaves a wife to mourn hi
